Label Schema

Join us on Github for contact & bug reports (<https://github.com/codalab/codalab/issues>)

The following table shows our taxonomy and definitions for the 4 categories and 11 vectors of sexist content. To construct our label schema, we reviewed numerous examples of online sexism, as well as existing taxonomies of sexist content and taxonomies for abusive content in general. The annotation guidelines contain definitions, clarifying notes, exemplar and edge case examples, and general guidance. These guidelines will be released in February 2023.

Category	Vector	Definition	Example
1. Threats, plans to harm and incitement	1.1 Threats of harm	Expressing intent, willingness or desire to harm a woman, group of women or individual women. This could include, but is not limited to: physical, sexual, emotional or privacy-based forms of harm.	I'll kill any women that talks back to me
	1.2 Incitement and encouragement of harm	Inciting or encouraging an individual, group, or general audience to harm a woman or group of women. It includes language where the author seeks to rationalise and/or justify harming women to another person.	Raping her would put her in her place
2. Derogation	2.1 Descriptive attacks	Characterising or describing women in a derogatory manner. This could include, but not limited to: negative generalisations about women's abilities, appearance, sexual behaviour, intellect, character, or morals.	Women's football is so shit, they're so slow and clumsy
	2.2 Aggressive and emotive attacks	Expressing strong negative sentiment against women, such as dislike, disgust, or hatred. This can be through direct description of the speaker's subjective emotions, baseless accusations, or the use of gendered slurs, gender-based profanities and gender-based insults.	I hate women

Privacy and Terms ( https://github.com/codalab/codalab/wiki/Privacy )	2.3 Dehumanising attacks and overt sexual objectification	Derogating women by comparing them to non-human entities such as vermin, disease or refuse, or overtly reducing them to sexual objects.	Women are pigs
	3.1 Causal use of gendered slurs, profanities and insults	Using gendered slurs, gender-based profanities and insults, but not to intentionally attack women. Only terms that traditionally describe women are in scope (e.g. 'bitch', 'slut').	Stop being such a little bitch
	3.2 Immutable gender differences and gender stereotypes	Asserting immutable, natural or otherwise essential differences between men and women. In some cases, this could be in the form of using women's traits to attack men. Most sexist jokes will fall into this category.	Men and women's brains are wired different bro, that's just how it is
	3.3 3. Animosity Backhanded gendered compliments	Ostensibly complimenting women, but actually belittling or implying their inferiority. This could include, but is not limited to: reduction of women's value to their attractiveness or sexual desirability, implication that women are innately frail, helpless or weak.	Women are delicate flowers who need to be cherished
	3.4 Condescending explanations or unwelcome advice	Offering unsolicited or patronising advice to women on topics and issues they know more about (known as 'mansplaining')	My gf always complains about period pains but she just doesn't understand the medical science for eliminating them!

Privacy and Terms	(https://github.com/codalab/codalab/wiki/Privacy)	4.1 Supporting mistreatment of individual women	Expressing support for mistreatment of women as individuals. Support can be shown by denying, understating, or seeking to justify such mistreatment.
			Women shouldn't show that much skin, it's their own fault if they get raped
4. Prejudiced Discussion		4.2 Supporting systemic discrimination against women as a group	Expressing support for systemic discrimination of women as a group. Support can be shown by denying, understating, or seeking to justify such discrimination.
			The leadership of men in boardrooms is a necessary evil—corporations need to be efficiently run
